

Dublin Dispute Resolution Centre Rooms and Rates

OUR ROOMS

The centre has been designed specifically for dispute resolution, e.g. arbitration, mediation and conciliation, but is flexible enough to cater for a wide range of meetings and consultations. Four large hearing rooms are complemented by a number of smaller breakout or consultation rooms, all designed and specified to the highest standard.

Each room is individually air-conditioned, has a telephone for your use and a credenza stocked with stationery basics. Every desk has dedicated power and data lines and all furnishings have been chosen carefully with your comfort and meeting needs in mind – leather chairs complement the powered desks.

Most of the things you would consider as 'extras' are included as standard at the DDRC, such as flipcharts and pens. A digital projector screen is included with Room 1, and a roving microphone with Rooms 1 and 2 together. Room 4 comes equipped with a wall mounted screen for presentation, with direct HDMI / VGA links from your desk.

For everything else, we have worked hard to partner with local services to provide you with a complete solution. Catering, parking, reduced hotel rates and a wide range of other ancillary services can also be arranged. Contact us with your requirements.
