Dear Susan

Scottish Law Commission: consultation on proposed repeal of the Law Reform
(Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1949

I am writing to you on behalf of the Scottish Civil Justice Council (“the Council”).

The Council would like to thank you for your invitation to comment on the proposed repeal of the remaining provisions of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1949. The Council was established on 28 May 2013 and its functions include advising the Lord President on the development of the civil justice system in Scotland and keeping the civil justice system under review.

I can advise that your draft repeal note was considered by the Council at its meeting on 10 March 2014. Having discussed the matter there were no objections to the proposed repeal and it was suggested that there would be merit in the Scottish

Law Commission consulting the Scottish Child Law Centre on this matter, if you have not already done so.

Yours sincerely

Roddy Flinn

Secretary to the Scottish Civil Justice Council
