

SCOTTISH CIVIL JUSTICE COUNCIL

PUBLICATION SCHEME AND GUIDE TO INFORMATION 2017

1. Section 23 of the Freedom of Information \(Scotland\) Act 2002 (“FOISA”) places a duty on Scottish public authorities to adopt and maintain a Publication Scheme which must specify:
 - classes of information the authority publishes or intends to publish;
 - the manner in which information of each class is, or is intended to be, published; and
 - whether the published information is, or is intended to be, available to the public free of charge or on payment.
2. The Scottish Civil Justice Council (the Council) adopted the Model Publication Scheme in 2013. Our Publication Scheme and Guide to Information (the Guide) has since been updated in line with the 2016 Model Publication Scheme published by the Scottish Information Commissioner on 29 March 2016. The Council will keep the Guide under review and will update it to reflect any changes made in any future Model Publication Scheme.
3. The Model Publication Scheme 2016 is available here:
<http://www.itspublicknowledge.info/ScottishPublicAuthorities/PublicationSchemes/PublicationSchemesHome.aspx>
4. There is more information about model schemes here: <http://www.itspublicknowledge.info/ScottishPublicAuthorities/PublicationSchemes/PublicationSchemeFAQs.aspx>
5. The purpose of this Guide to Information is to:
 - allow the public to see what information is available (and what is not available) in relation to each class;
 - state what charges may be applied;
 - explain how to find the information easily;
 - provide contact details for enquirers to get help accessing information; and
 - explain how to request information that has not been published.
6. The Guide is split into the following six sections:

- Availability and formats
- Exempt information
- Copyright
- Charges
- Contact us
- The classes of information that we publish

Availability and formats

48. This Guide is available at www.scottishciviljusticecouncil.gov.uk/publications/, where a voluntary Records Management Plan is also available. A mandatory Record Management Plan is currently being developed in conjunction with National Records Scotland. This makes it easy to find contract opportunities from across the public sector in Scotland.

50. Tenders by the Council are carried out in accordance with SCTS procurement policies and are published on the Scottish Procurement website.

51. All of the SCTS published documents (including terms and conditions) can be found by clicking on the web link below. Information on past, future and current tenders along with Contract Awards from March 2009 are also published on the portal.

Public Contracts Scotland Portal

52. There is also a Finance and Procurement page on the SCTS website.
53. Additional information on contracts beyond that set out on the Public Contracts Scotland Portal. Please note that in some instances specific charging information such as an hourly or per unit rate under a particular contract has not been published. This is where it is considered that disclosure of the information could be substantially prejudicial to the contractor's commercial interests, in line with section 33(1)(b) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002. It is where SCTS assessed the public interest in release as being outweighed by the public interest in allowing contractors the confidence that information which they consider to be sensitive cannot be used by competitors to their disadvantage (e.g. to undercut them in a subsequent procurement).
