Item 3.2 Proposed Revisions to Standing Orders (Paper 3.2)

7. Paper 3.2 invited members to consider and approve amendments to the Council's Standing Orders which govern how the Scottish Civil Justice Council and its committees are run and which aim to create efficiencies in the planning and administration of Council business.
8. Members considered the paper which proposed amendments to:
  - reduce the frequency of ordinary meetings to four times per year;
  - Streamline the administration of items by correspondence and publication of outcomes on the Council's website; and
  - Streamline the process for approval and publication of Council minutes.
9. The proposed amendments were approved subject to a minor amendment in relation to Standing Order 4.14 where the Council felt it was important to ensure that any matter subject to consideration by correspondence had the opportunity to be tabled for discussion at a full SCJC meeting .
10. It was agreed that the revised Standing Orders would be published on the Council website.

Item 4: Work Programme

Item 4.1 – Update from the Scottish Government (SG) on legislative developments (Oral)

11. The SG provided an update on legislative developments.
12. It was noted that the Children (Scotland) Bill, Civil Partnership (Scotland) Bill and the Defamation and Malicious Publication (Scotland) Bill were now in Stage 1 in the Scottish Parliament.
13. It was also noted that the Scottish Government's consultation on Gender Recognition had been published, with forthcoming consultations on legal services and dispute resolution expected to be published in the near future.

14. The new Scottish Government Programme for Government would be published as normal in September. However, it was noted that next year's parliamentary session would be shorter due to the Scottish parliamentary election due to take place in May 2021.

Item 4.2 – Rules Rewrite Project (Paper 4.2)

15. Paper 4.2 provided an update on the status of the Rules Rewrite Project.

16. Whilst progress across a number of priorities had been made by the SCJC, Members noted their disappointment that this workstream in particular had not progressed due to a lack of resources at both the policy and legal level.

17. Council members considered this project central to the work of the Council and, with this in mind, agreed that it should be revisited as part of the forthcoming Strategy Day.

18. In the meantime, it was noted that efforts would continue to fill vacant policy and legal posts.

Item 4.3 – Annual Programme – Update on Work Plan and Priorities (Paper 4.3)

19. Paper 4.3 gave a high-level overview of progress to date with delivering the Council Priorities as set out in the 2019/20 Annual Programme.

20. It was noted that whilst there had been substantive pieces of work progressed, due to limited resources and vacant posts there remained a number of outstanding priorities.

21. Council agreed therefore that outstanding priorities would be rolled into the Council's 2020/21 annual plan so that it may be laid in Parliament as required by the 1 April 2020.

22. It was noted that a draft 2020/21 programme would be circulated to Council members by correspondence at the earliest opportunity for consideration and approval.

23. Lastly, it was agreed that the forthcoming Strategy Day would be a good opportunity to consider Council's priorities more generally.

Item 5: Justice System reform

Item 5.1 – Scottish Government Consultation on the changes introduced by the Bankruptcy and Debt Advice (Scotland) Act 2014: judicial rate of interest (Paper 5.1)

24. Paper 5.1 invited members to consider and approve a draft response to a consultation being led by Accountant in Bankruptcy (AiB) on changes introduced by the Bankruptcy and Debt Advice (Scotland) Act 2014.

25. Members discussed the complex issues arising under this topic and agreed that various broader considerations should be incorporated into the consultation response. The secretariat agreed to update the draft response to incorporate members' views in consultation with the Lord President.

26. It was agreed that, due to time constraints for responding to the consultation, members would not have an opportunity to further review the response prior to its submission to AiB by the end of February 2020. A copy of the final response would be circulated to members.

Item 6.1 Civil Litigation (E&GP)(S) Act 2018 – group proceedings

29. To date, a working group had been established to take forward this work and its first meeting had taken place on 29 January 2020.

30. The working group had agreed a timetable of work and the SCJC secretariat was undertaking engagement with a number of interested parties in relation to the development of policy.
